

Pam Purdy- Biography

Pam has been involved with horses all her life. She has enjoyed several different riding styles: competitive trail riding, eventing, hunter/ jumper, gymkhana, team roping, team penning and was a lead rider in the Rocky Mountain Rider's musical ride and local parades.

Pam is proud of her CHA Level II English/Western Certification and has been instructing since 1996. She continues her professional development by participating in lessons and clinics presented by other professional horsemen.

She teaches safe horsemanship in English or Western riding disciplines to all who are interested in horses. Pam has a strong desire for people to overcome their fears, and to enjoy being a partner with their horse.
