

Sherri Hosker – Biography

Sherri has loved horses her whole life. She has been a 4-H instructor for the past 8 years and has shown at open horse shows in western and english disciplines. Sherri currently sits on the 4-H Southern Regional Equine Committee as well as the Provincial Equine Advisory Committee.

Sherri has attended many clinics on her equine journey and recently has been introduced to traditional vaquero horsemanship and its value in modern horsemanship.

Sherri is proud to be a CHA certified Level I Western & English Instructor. She also continues her personal and professional development by participating in clinics and lessons with other professional horsemen.

Sherri's love for horses is second only to her love of family and children. She believes that as long as it involves children and horses it is what she wants to do. She is passionate about teaching children how to have a respectful, safe and fun relationship with these wonderful creatures we call horses.